1.4 - Feedback System

1.4.1 – Whether structured feedback received from all the stakeholders.

Students	Yes
Teachers	Yes
Employers	No
Alumni	No
Parents	No

1.4.2 – How the feedback obtained is being analyzed and utilized for overall development of the institution? (maximum 500 words)

Feedback Obtained

Feedback is obtained regularly from the students, faculty members, employers, alumni and parents of Assam Don Bosco University. The detailed process and action taken are described in brief in the following. Feedback from Students: Every semester, all the students of the University provide feedback regarding the courses taught, through an online system. The student feedback is compiled in individual reports by the department of Human Resources and shared with each faculty member in oneonone meetings. The student feedback report prepared from the online feedback system highlights the strengths and areas of improvement for each faculty member. Also ratings are given by students on different identified and weighted criteria of the teachinglearning processes. Special feedback session for the final year students is conducted at the end of every academic year. In this process, students give suggestions on various aspects of teachinglearning and curriculum design, based on their experience over the years spent at the University. Based on the feedback, necessary action is taken by the University administration. Feedback from Faculty members: Each faculty of the University provides feedback on updation/modification of syllabus taught by him/her and forwards it to the respective HoD (Head of Department). The Board of Studies (BoS) for each department conducts the annual meeting, wherein the feedback given by the subject teachers are presented to the board for consideration. Based on the recommendations of the BoS, discussions are done in the Academic Council meeting for the required modifications in Curriculum as well as TeachingLearning processes. The faculty members also give feedback regarding the respective Heads of the departments in specified format online every year. A detailed analysis of this feedback is done by the department of HR and shared with the HODs in oneonone meetings. Feedback from Employers: Feedback regarding the performance of students is taken from the employers during campus recruitment processes, by the Training and Placement department of the University. These feedback reports are taken into consideration for designing/modifying contents of the training activities for the students. Employers' feedback reports are also referred to while updating the syllabi during the Board of Studies meetings of the departments. Feedback from Alumni: Alumni of the University play a major role in providing feedback of the various processes of the University. The vision, mission and PEOs (Program Educational Objectives) of each department had been sent to alumni. Based on the suggestions provided by the alumni, the vision, mission and Programme Educational Objectives (PEOs) of the departments have been modified. Feedback from Parents: Every year annual ParentsTeachers Meet is organized. During the interaction of parents with the respective mentors, teachers and also with the college management, feedback on various issues are obtained. Parents are encouraged to suggest changes in the processes of the University for Overall Quality Improvement. Various actions are taken by the management based on this feedback.

2.3.2 – Students mentoring system available in the institution? Give details. (maximum 500 words)

Don Bosco's Way is a studentcentred approach to education for self actualization and social participation. Through it, the student matures into a dynamic agent of social, political and cultural progress. In its endeavour to support and strengthen the studentcentred approach in a dynamic teachinglearning environment, IQAC focussed on Mentoring as a reciprocal learning relationship which fosters an environment in which Faculty can enable young people to be the best they can be. In its endeavour towards this approach, the IQAC aspires to impress upon all faculty members that becoming a skilled mentor and counsellor is a lifelong process that places a premium on selfawareness, on a keen desire for personal growth, a sustained passion for learning, and openness to feedback and the consequent call to adapt and change. Central to this evolution is the core realization that no two people are alike and no two people understand language in the same way ones understanding will always be linked to one's personal experience of the world. A good educator knows this, and will not try to fit students into a preconceived mould/s but rather help them focus on their emotions, experiences and behavioural patterns to bring about growth and development. In the university, the faculty members of the respective departments are the mentors of assigned groups of students of the same departments. Generally such a group of students will comprise of 1015 students. Throughout the period of study, a student will be mentored by a faculty member, through individual as well as group interactions. A mentor is also responsible to maintain a file containing the student progression data, maintained through regular mentormentee meetings. The mentoring sessions are are of two types, such as the prescheduled ones as per the academic calendar and the need based meetings of oneonone interaction as well as counselling. Another unique feature of the mentoring system of the university is the awarding of proficiency certificates during the convocation to each student, apart from the academic certificates containing marks. The proficiency certificates contain the information regarding the students participation and achievements in the cocurricular as well as extracurricular activities during the student life in the university. Overall contribution of a student to the campus life in the university is reflected in the proficiency certificate. Thus, the mentoring system of Assam Don Bosco University is a unique experience for all the students as well as the faculty members.

Assam Don Bosco University has standard procedures and policies for maintaining and utilizing physical and support facilities, as described in the following The University has a Development Officer for overseeing the maintenance of buildings, classrooms and laboratories. He works in with a group of dedicated maintenance and support staff to ensure that the buildings, equipments, and all other infrastructural facilities of the University are continually kept in good condition. It is his responsibility to ensure the cleanliness of the facilities and the surroundings. The development officer also coordinates the university's efforts for disaster preparedness (like fire, earthquake, etc). He is responsible for conducting mock drills with staff and students for disaster preparedness. Apart from the indoor facilities, he also sees to the maintenance of the outdoor areas such as playground, parking areas, lawns, gardens etc. Infrastructure related problems are attended to promptly by the maintenance staff under the supervision of the Development officer. A series of process maps and SOPs have been developed for maintenance and various purchase activities connected to infrastructural maintenance. As a policy, faculty members, staff, lab assistants, drivers and other service personnel are given responsibility to maintain the equipments under their supervision and report to the Development officer if additional maintenance assistance is required for those equipments. Any incident beyond the scope of SOP is reported to the Development Officer, who assigns the task to a team of capable and dedicated maintenance personnel within the university itself. External equipment manufacturers are referred to when efforts within the university fail. For maintenance of equipment, computer, elevators, etc., the university has AMC with relevant agency.

5.3.2 – Activity of Student Council & representation of students on academic & administrative bodies/committees of the institution (maximum 500 words)

There are three different student bodies for representation of students on academic and administrative bodies under the university: School of Technology Commerce and Management: The School of Technology has an association which includes the representative body of students along with members from management, administration, faculty members and staff members. The student body is formed with the class representatives from every class. There are two representatives, one male and one female, who are elected or selected by the male and female students of the class, respectively. The student body is headed by three key leaders, viz., Student coordinator Assistant student coordinator (Men) Assistant student coordinator (Women) These three leaders elected by all are the Class Representatives (CRs) for one academic session. The CRs take the lead role in all the day to day activities in the class. Any matter related to academics and administrations are referred by the CRs to appropriate authority as and when it becomes necessary. The CRs are also the members of the training and placement cell of the university by default. The student coordinator and assistant coordinator are members of the disciplinary committee and the core committee of the Director of School of Technology. Thus, they, on behalf of the whole student community take part in the decision making in the student centric decision making. Other than the three student coordinators, all other CRs are appointed as liasoning representatives with sets of cocurricular and extracurricular clubs of the school to play a decisive role in the planning and execution of the club activities. School of Social Sciences, Fundamental Applied Sciences, and Life Sciences: The School of Humanities and Social Sciences (SHSS)/ School of Life Sciences (SLS)/ School of Fundamental and Applied Sciences (SFAS) Association is a representative body of the Institute community. It endeavors to take advantage of every opportunity to create and sustain an environment that nurtures life in its fullness, for every member of its community and set it on the path of excellence. SHSS/SLS believes that progress is possible only with the involvement of all the stakeholders in the Institute the students, the staff, the faculty and the management. The SHSS/SLS/SFAS Association consists of elected representatives from the students, nominated representatives from the staff and faculty. Each member ought to exemplify what is best in a Bosconian- integrity of life, commitment to one's responsibilities and constant pursuit of excellence.

CRITERION VI – GOVERNANCE, LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT

6.1 - Institutional Vision and Leadership

6.1.1 – Mention two practices of decentralization and participative management during the last year (maximum 500 words)

The university nurtures a culture of participative management and decentralization through a number of activities and initiatives. This is often achieved by regular faculty and staff meetings, departmental meetings and meetings of various representatives' bodies. These meetings are consultative in nature and are aimed to include the opinions of the fraternity in the process decision making. Besides, annual appreciation day is also celebrated. Two examples of the practices of decentralization and participative management are: 1. Under the decentralized governance model, each department has the autonomy to decide and organize invited talks, GATE/NET/etc workshops, seminars, publish departmental newsletters and magazines, conduct industrial visits, etc. for the benefit of the students. 2. Each department presents their annual action plan to the respective Directors of school at the beginning of each year and this is being followed up. At the faculty level, faculty member are advisors and mentors in various clubs as well as committees and there are student representatives at various levels such as student association, Clubs, committees and IQAC, etc. The director of the school supervises the work of the department under their schools. Besides, faculty members submitted joint proposals and also wrote joint research papers.

6.1.2 – Does the institution have a Management Information System (MIS)?

Yes

6.2 - Strategy Development and Deployment

6.2.1 – Quality improvement strategies adopted by the institution for each of the following (with in 100 words each):

Strategy Type	Details
Curriculum Development	The university continuously strives to provide quality education through regular curriculum development. Some of the initiatives in this direction are: ? Implementation of the revised CBCS System having options for credits from OnLine Courses. ? Training sessions organized on Outcomes Based Education model for curriculum design and revision. ? Stating the Course Outcomes for all the courses offered by the University using revised Bloom's Taxonomy and implementing them for better mapping of Course Outcomes with the Programme Outcomes. ? Review of the curriculum during the Board of Studies meetings of all the departments individually.
Teaching and Learning	? Each department conducted Invited talks, Symposium, Seminars, Debates, Quizzes and paper presentations. ? Industrial visits for the students were conducted by individual departments. ? Use of participatory teachinglearning methodologies were adopted and reviewed during the departmental meetings. ? Uses of online resources such as NPTEL, Swayam and MOOCs in teaching were augmented through institutionwide publicity and sensitisation initiatives.
Examination and Evaluation	? Regulations of Examination and evaluation processes were strictly followed to maintain the standard. ? Question paper setting, moderation, answer script evaluation, scrutiny and timely result declaration norms were adhered to. ? Most of the processes involved in Examination and Evaluation processes were implemented through ERP.
Research and Development	An internal audit on the Research Climate in the University was conducted by a committee setup by the IQAC. ? The Institution Innovation Council of the university was established. ? The University provided consultancy to the IIE under Agriculture Sector Development. ? A number of funded research projects were awarded to the faculty members of the University.
Library, ICT and Physical Infrastructure / Instrumentation	• Koha Library automation Software is used to provide automation services to library users. • RFID tagging of the library books was done during the year. • For the maintenance Infrastructure and Instrumentation a systematic standard procedure has been implemented. Overall the infrastructure/Instrumentation is classified into two main categories: 1) Maintenance of immovable property: This is further categorised as: (i) Periodic Maintenance which includes whitewashing (once in 3 years), General housekeeping, cleaning (annually). (ii) Breakdown Maintenance Maintenance and Rectification done in case of breakdown of any machinery/instrument. 2) Maintenance of Plants and Equipments: This is again categorized into: (i) Preventive Maintenance: This is further subdivided as : (a) Schedule A (monthly) and (b) Schedule B (once in 3 months) (ii) Breakdown Maintenance Maintenance and Rectification done in case of breakdown of any plant/equipment. In addition to these, recalibration of all the equipments/instruments is done periodically as per the guidelines provided in instruction manuals. Human Resource Management (a) Based on analysis of student feedback and the vision of the university, the following staff enrichment programmes were conducted: 1. Developing a Growth Mindset... for navigating change. 2. Towards Outcome based Teaching Learning Approach. (b) Revised Academic Performance Index (API) format is adopted as per revised UGC guidelines in the University during the year. (c) Faculty members are provided with the Professional Development Allowance Fund for attending conferences, workshops and academic programmes. (d) Group Health Insurance is facilitated through the HR department for the faculty and staff. Industry Interaction / Collaboration A number of MOUs have been established with industry to facilitate collaborative activities of the university during the year. The following is a list of Industry Interaction/Collaborations during the year: ? MOU with Matrix Diagnostic Centre, Assam, India to enable cooperation between ADBU and Matrix Diagnostic Centre for establishing collaborative relations. ? MOU with Orion Edutech Pvt. Ltd., for providing Japanese language training and assist in industry placement of students in India and Japan. ? MOU with ICARNational Research Centre on Pig, for a number of resource sharing and exchange programmes. ? MOU with ICARDirectorate of Coldwater Fisheries Research, for creating and exchanging scientific knowledge and information.

Admission of Students	The following strategies were adopted to improve the admission scenario of the university. ? University banners, bookmarks and posters were designed and carried along by faculty members and students for distribution in various parts of North East India. ? Awareness programs on various emerging topics were conducted in junior colleges of Assam as well as other Northeastern states, by the faculty members. ? Advertisement of the different activities of the university through social media. ? To create awareness amongst students towards science and technology, "Anveshan: Student Research Convention", an exhibition of research projects by students was organized. ? Short video clips of the university were made and broadcasted in social media.

6.4 - Financial Management and Resource Mobilization

6.4.1 – Institution conducts internal and external financial audits regularly (with in 100 words each)

The University has appointed statutory external auditors, M/S HK Agrawala and Associates, who regularly audit the accounts of the University for the past several years. As the University is still in its developmental stage and the areas of finance handled by the University Finance Department are limited, an internal audit mechanism has not yet been put in place. Instead, the Accounts Officer and the Development Officer review weekly the state of the accounts and major expenditures with the Vice Chancellor, thereby having checks and balances in place. The external auditors audit the accounts of the University in December and April every year - in December for the period April to December, and in April for the final audit. This practice is also intended as a measure of checks and balances with a view to correct any shortcomings and to advice on proper practices. As indicated above, the accounts of the University are regularly audited by M/S HK Agrawala and Associates. So far, there has not been any audit objections.

7.1.2 - Environmental Consciousness and Sustainability/Alternate Energy initiatives such as:

Percentage of power requirement of the University met by the renewable energy sources

Percentage of power requirement of the University met by the renewable energy sources Percentage of power requirement of Assam Don Bosco University met by the renewable energy sources is 51.5. Power Requirement of the university met by the renewable energy sources: 320 kW (Peak) Total Power requirement: 621 kW (Connected load at Azara 207 kW, Tapesia 214 kW, Kharghuli 200 kW Renewable Energy Source: Solar Total Lighting Requirements: 54.5 kW, Percentage Lighting through LED bulbs: 67 Environmental Consciousness and Sustainability: Assam Don Bosco University is committed to "zero waste" and reducing the environmental impact of its activities through its philosophy of "reducereuserecycle". A prudent budgeting approach is adopted in what we purchase as a first step towards reducing waste. Over the years, the University's recycling scheme has included office stationery, electronics, laboratory material and furniture. • Solid waste: The entire tea plantation of 120 acres on the campus is organically nurtured from the vermicompost produced from the bio waste of the University campus. Vermicompost is produced at the campus from the bio waste matter of the University as organic nutrients for the plantations with the firm endeavour of promoting recycling of waste and dissemination of the practice of organic farming. The ecofriendly waste management system involves a magnetic flux created with controlled oxygen presence which ensures the complete combustion of waste decomposing municipal solid waste material into ash. During the destruction process there is no odour, flies or leaching of contaminants • Liquid waste: The University adheres to a strict protocol of liquid waste disposal in its laboratories. Any glassware used in the laboratory is rinsed with minimum water and placed in the liquid waste container. The liquid waste is segregated into organic and inorganic waste. Inorganic waste such as concentrated acidic or alkaline solutions is neutralized before disposal. Sodium bicarbonate or Calcium oxide (lime) is used for the neutralization process so that the neutralized liquid contains no harmful substance. The organic waste yield of the University is limited till date and therefore treated with cow dung for decomposition due to the action of microorganisms. • Ewaste: The University has optimised its inventory of 577 computers through reassembling, modification and upgradation by the University's own team of IT Administrator, faculty members and students of Computer Science Engineering and Information Technology. This has been a critical endeavour towards Ewaste management ensuring that no discarded computers or printers are lying idle in the office premises. This Ewaste drive has also benefitted the social commitment programme, "Swabalamban" by training unemployed youth in maintenance

7.1.7 – Initiatives taken by the institution to make the campus eco-friendly (at least five)

Some of the initiatives taken by Assam Don Bosco University to make the campuses ecofriendly are (1) Installation of roof top solar panels for energy generation and solar lighting by phasing out existing lighting equipment. (2) Plantation of trees around the campus as well as planting of saplings on World Environment Day. (3) Student awareness to maintain a clean campus and use of separate dustbins for biodegradable and nonbiodegradable wastes in the campus.

- (4) Replacement of all light bulbs with LED bulbs for less energy consumption.
- (5) Storage of rain water for washing purposes. (6) Reduction in printing. (7)
 Use of only recyclable plastic.

7.2 - Best Practices

7.2.1 – Describe at least two institutional best practices

Two best practices of Assam Don Bosco University are (1) Creation of an ambiance in the university where social commitment becomes an attitude, a challenge and a way of life, an essential constituent in the profile of a Don Bosco University Graduate.

(http://www.dbuniversity.ac.in/social_committment.php) (2) Creating and Sustaining an EcoFriendly Campus with clear cut goals and priorities in the management of water resources, energy sources and consumption, preservation of flora and fauna, conservation of eco systems and wildlife, and productive use of the land'. 7.3 - Institutional Distinctiveness

7.3.1 – Provide the details of the performance of the institution in one area distinctive to its vision, priority and thrust in not more than 500 words

The distinctiveness of Don Bosco University consists primarily in creating for its faculty and students an ambiance that provides a 'holding environment' a psychological space that is both safe and uncomfortable. 'Safe' because a 'holding environment' is what we all needs to grow and blossom, a supportive environment. 'Uncomfortable' because in such an environment one also promotes 'disruptive creativity'. Such an environment is the natural result of the following strengths of the university community: 1. It's adherence to its foundational concepts that have laid out the trajectory of its growth plan. 2. Its outstanding Human Resource Management system to ensure 'a shared vision, a cohesive team and an engaging work culture'. 3. Its meticulously planned and implemented personal and professional development programmes for its faculty and students. 4. Its welloiled governance structure and administrative mechanisms to ensure speedy implementation of all developmental plans. 5. Its relentless efforts at attaining the best possible balance between growth and sustainability. 6. Its manifest commitment to be responsible stewards of the extraordinary campus it is blessed with by a meticulous devotion to ensuring biodiversity, ecoconsciousness and reverence for the gifts of nature. Taken together, these strengths have contributed in ample measure towards the creation of a culture in the University that is uniquely our own, that energises us in all that we do, and knits us together into one educative community. Look around our campus, look into our classrooms and research labs, look into the camaraderie among our staff, students and faculty that cuts across all distinctions here at the campus... THAT is what we call Don Bosco's system of education! This ambiance, taken together with our multipronged social commitment programs involving every member of the faculty and students, results in moulding the typical Don Bosco university graduate who, because they work relentlessly at being intellectually competent, morally upright, spiritually inspired and socially committed, are bound to leave footprints wherever they
