- 13.2. He shall be a member of the Sponsoring Body, and shall be an eminent academician with experience in education management.
- 13.3. The Vice-Chancellor shall be the principal executive and academic officer of the University and shall exercise general supervision and control over the affairs of the University and execute the decisions of the authorities of the University.
- 13.4. It shall be the duty of the Vice-Chancellor to ensure that the Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations of the University are duly observed and he shall have all powers necessary to ensure such observance. He shall endeavour to further the objects of the university and maintain high standards in its functioning.
- 13.5. The Vice-Chancellor shall preside at the convocation of the University, for conferring degrees, diplomas, charters, designations or certificates in the absence of both the Visitor and the Chancellor.
- 13.6. The Vice-Chancellor shall have the power to convene or cause to be convened meetings of the committees of which he is the chairperson.
- 13.7. Subject to budgetary provisions made for specific purposes, the Vice-Chancellor shall have the power to incur expenditure in accordance with the procedure laid down by the Regulations.
- 13.8. The Vice-Chancellor shall have the authority to delegate some of his powers to any of the officers under his control with due approval of the Board of Management.
- 13.9. The Vice-Chancellor may at his discretion constitute such committees as he may consider appropriate, and they shall be answerable to him.
- 13.10. If in the opinion of the Vice-Chancellor it is necessary to take immediate action on any matter for which powers are conferred on any other authority by or under these Statutes, he may take such action as he deems necessary and shall at the earliest opportunity thereafter report his action to such officers or authority as would have in the ordinary course dealt with the matter.
 - 13.10.1. Provided that, if in the opinion of the concerned authority such action should not have been taken by the Vice-Chancellor, then such case shall be referred to the Chancellor, whose decision there on shall be final.
 - 13.10.2. Provided further that where any such action taken by the Vice-Chancellor affects any person in the service of the University, such person shall be entitled to prefer, within three months from the date on which such action is communicated to him, an appeal to the Governing Body, and the Governing Body may confirm or modify or reverse the action taken by the Vice-Chancellor.
- 13.11. If in the opinion of the Vice-Chancellor, any decision of any authority of the University is outside the powers conferred by the Statutes, Ordinances or Regulations, or is likely to be prejudicial to the interests of the University, he shall request the concerned authority to revise its decision within seven days from the date of his decision; and, in case the authority refuses to revise such decision wholly or partly, or fails to take any decision within seven days from the date of his request, then such matter shall be referred to the Chancellor and his decision thereon shall be final.
- 13.12. When the Vice-Chancellor is absent the Pro Vice-Chancellor shall act on his behalf. If there is no Pro Vice-Chancellor or if he is also absent, the Vice-Chancellor shall appoint a senior person from among the Deans or faculty members to perform such duties as may be delegated.

- 13.13. In the event of the post of the Vice-Chancellor becoming vacant due to untimely demise, resignation or termination, the Chancellor shall appoint an acting Vice-Chancellor.
- 13.14. The Vice-Chancellor shall exercise such other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed.
- 13.15. If at any time, the situation so warrants and if the continuance of the Vice-Chancellor is not in the interest of the university, the Chancellor may, after making such enquiry as may be deemed necessary, by an order in writing stating the reasons therein, ask the Vice-Chancellor to relinquish his office from such date as may be specified in the order.
