Program Highlights

A short documentary on Birbala Kanaklata Baruah was screened, showcasing her remarkable courage and sacrifice during the Quit India Movement, where she became a martyr at just 17 while proudly carrying the Indian flag in protest against British rule. The film highlighted her pivotal role in Assam's freedom struggle and her lasting legacy as a symbol of resistance. Following the screening, NSS volunteer Mr. Glorin Wilson delivered a heartfelt speech reflecting on her bravery and the inspiration she continues to provide, especially to women and youth. The event concluded with the singing of the National Anthem, as all attendees stood in solemn respect, reaffirming their commitment to the ideals of freedom, unity, and national pride that Kanaklata Baruah embodied.
